Monday: WHAT IS HONESTY?

Being honest is being open, trustworthy and truthful. When people are honest, they can be relied on not to lie, cheat or steal. Honesty is telling the truth. It is admitting mistakes even when you know someone might be angry or disappointed. Being honest means that you don’t pretend to be something you are not. With honesty, you can trust things to be as they appear.

Tuesday: WHY PRACTICE HONESTY?

Honesty is important because it builds trust. When people lie, or cover up mistakes, others can’t trust them. When people aren’t honesty with themselves, they pretend that something doesn’t matter when it does or they exaggerate to impress others. When you are honest with yourself, you accept yourself as you are. When you are honest, others can believe you.

Wednesday: HOW DO YOU PRACTICE HONESTY?

When you are honest, you don’t try to fool yourself or others. You say what you mean and mean what you say. You only make promises you can keep. Be trustworthy in all your dealings, refusing to lie or cheat. Admit your mistakes and fix them. Be honest with yourself and you will be honest with others. You don’t need to make things up to look good—you’re already good—honest!
