

This week's Virtue of the Week will be HONOR.

Monday: WHAT IS HONOR?

Honor is living with a sense of respect for what you believe is right. It is living by the virtues, showing great respect for yourself, other people, and the rules you live by. When you are honorable, you don't have to feel ashamed of who you are or what you are doing. You are worthy of respect. You set a good example.

Tuesday: WHY PRACTICE HONOR?

Without honor, people act disrespectfully and do things which make them and others feel ashamed. They just do what they want without caring about the virtues or whether it is right or wrong. When someone is honorable, other people trust them to do what is right. Their word of honor means they will do exactly what they promise. People respect and look up to someone who is honorable.

Wednesday: HOW DO YOU PRACTICE HONOR?

When you act with honor, you do the right thing regardless of what others are doing. You keep your promises, without anyone reminding or nagging you. You honor your elders by speaking respectfully to them. You honor yourself by being your best, practicing your virtues every day. When you act with honor, you set a good example, not to be admired, but just because it is the right thing to do.
